Portraits of Indian Leaders in India House, London

762. SHRI CHITTA BASU:
SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the India House in London adores portraits of our national leaders; if so, the details thereof;

(b) whether it is also a fact that portraits of many leaders including those of Lokmanya Tilak and Chhattrapati Shivaji have been removed and placed in the store of the House from time to time as per officials whims; if so by when these are likely to be restored; and

(c) what guidelines are observed by the Indian High Commission in UK in displaying such portraits?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. Eight portraits of national leaders are presently displayed in the Reception/Conference Hall of the High Commission of India in London.

(b) and (c) The portraits of Shivaji and Lokmanya Tilak had recently been removed for repairs and restoration. These will be displayed again as soon as the repair work is complete. The restoration and rectification of damage of portraits displayed at India House is undertaken periodically. Previous such instances relate to portraits of Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru.

Peace proposals of CPSU General Secretary

763. SHRI SHANTI TYAGI:
SHRI CHITTA BASU:
DR. YELAMANCHILI SIVAJI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the proposals made by the CPSU General-Secretary, Mikhail Gorbachev, on Asia-Pacific Security;

(b) if so, what are the details of the proposals;

(c) whether the policy calls for convening of international conference before 1990 to make the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace;

(d) whether the key role assigned to the USSR the USA and Japan in the said policy, to the exclusion of India has reduced the importance of the country in international affairs; and

(e) what is Government's reaction in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The proposals were contained in a speech made by Mr. Gorbachev at Krasnoyarsk on the 16th September, 1988. A copy of relevant excerpts is laid on the
